

Parental Consent & Liability Waiver

Ignite is led by SPIRITUS missionaries and is open to all students in high school. The goal of this group is to encourage students to grow in relationship with Jesus and build a community founded on the teachings of the Catholic faith. The community will center around fun activities, faith sharing and participation in community with others. The students will meet at Mount Tabor Center. On occasion the group may choose to walk to or meet at other local venues for an activity or service project. SPIRITUS is not responsible for providing transportation of participants by vehicle. By signing this form, parents/guardians agree to allow their student to be transported by another parent or participant of the Ignite group.

Please complete this form and bring it to your first group meeting.
